

PRESS RELEASE

The Texas City Museum, located 409 6th St. No. will be closed beginning May 3, 2010 for extensive renovations. This will include both interior and exterior renovations.

The Texas City Historical Preservation Corporation, Joseph Hoover AIA + Associates and Southwest Museum Services have worked together for the past 2 years finalizing the exciting new design for the museum.

Our goal for reopening will coincide with the city's 100 year celebration beginning in 2011.
